CHECKLIST FOR TOURISM

Passport Number: E-mail Address: Supporting documents should be translated in English, Finnish or Swedish and shall be presented in following order. Originals should be presented at the Visa Application Centre, but you only need to submit photocopies of the documents. If certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past isk months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel litherary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting everal countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or see — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employee. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resurb indicate that the employeer is aware that the employee will resurb indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will resurb indicate the duration of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority, 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority, 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority, Passport Number: Supporting documents should be translated in English, Finnish or Swedish and shall be presented in following order. Originals should be presented at the Visa Application Centre, but you only need to submit photocopies of the documents. If certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Original Copy Remarks (if document is missing or if the condition does not meet requirements) Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel litinerary to and from the Schengen Member State teritory. If visiting several countries to be visited — i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employee, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must state that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her dutles upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African a other applicable authority, 2) Registration with the South African or other applicable authority, 2) Registration with the South African are of the applicant	Namo	Contact No.:
Supporting documents should be translated in English, Finnish or Swedish and shall be presented in following order. Originals should be presented at the Visa Application Centre, but you only need to submit photocopies of the documents. If certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, offic	Name.	Contact No
Supporting documents should be translated in English, Finnish or Swedish and shall be presented in following order. Originals should be presented at the Visa Application Centre, but you only need to submit photocopies of the documents. If certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited—i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority, 2) Registration with the South African rother applicable authority, 2) Registration wit Supporting documents should be translated in English, Finnish or Swedish and shall be presented in following order. Originals should be presented at the Visa Application Centre, but you only need to submit photocopies of the documents. If certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited—i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority, 2) Registration with the South African rother applicable authority, 2) Registration wit
Originals should be presented at the Visa Application Centre, but you only need to submit photocopies of the documents. If certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel litinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Professions Council of South African or other applicable authority. 1) Registration with the South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the south African because Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for stud	Passport Number: E-mail Addres		s:
Originals should be presented at the Visa Application Centre, but you only need to submit photocopies of the documents. If certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel litinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Professions Council of South African or other applicable authority. 1) Registration with the South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the south African because Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for stud documents, if certification of photocopies is needed, it is advised on the checklist. The Embassy does not return documents, except for passports, to applicants. Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel literary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority. 1) CIPC,	Supporting documents should be translated in English	h, Finnish or Sw	edish a	nd shall b	e presented in following order.
Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the south Africa or other applicable authority. 3 ASICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the achool, college or university, stating the date of issu	Originals should be presented at the Visa Application	Centre, but you	u only n	eed to su	bmit photocopies of the
Required Documents Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel litinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory, If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rall or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 3 If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the		it is advised on	the che	cklist. Tl	ne Embassy does not return
Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must ontain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the south Africa or other applicable authority. 3 If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue,	documents, except for passports, to applicants.			ı
Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited — i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 2 Registration with the South Africa or other applicable authority. 3 If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the	Required Documents			Сору	missing or if the condition does Schengen visa application form duly completed, dated and signed by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel litinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is
by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is					not meet requirements)
by the applicant. Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service ((SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the copilicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	Schengen visa annlication form duly completed da	ted and signed
Recent colour passport photograph, which fulfills ICAO standards (taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African outhority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African authority. 2) Registration with the South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African or other applicable authority. 2 the subjects of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is		tea ana signea
(taken within the past six months, white or light background, neutral face expression). Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African outhority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African nevenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is		CAO standards Passport or other travel document. The travel document must be valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is valid for at least three months after the completion of the journey. The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel litinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South African revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	,
The travel document must contain two blank pages. A copy of the personal details page of the passport. Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	Passport or other travel document. The travel docu	ıment must be Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	valid for at least three months after the completion	of the journey.
Detailed travel itinerary to and from the Schengen Member State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South Africa Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	The travel document must contain two blank pages	. A copy of the State territory. If visiting several countries within one trip, a travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea — must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is travel schedule including all the countries to be visited —i.e., travelling by air, road, rail or sea – must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa nevenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is travelling by air, road, rail or sea – must clearly indicate the duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is		- duration of stay in each Schengen Member State (the departure date, means of travel and destination). If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	=
If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is
If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is		ne departure
letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	date, means of travel and destination).
letter from the employer. The letter must state the employee's name, their position, their length of service and nature of service (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South Africa authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	If the applicant is employed, he/she should attach a recent (permanent/contractual work). The letter must indicate that the employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is employer is aware that the employee will be taking leave on the said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	name, their position, their length of service and nat	ure of service said dates and that the employee will resume his/her duties upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	(permanent/contractual work). The letter must indi	cate that the upon return. The letter must be written on a company letter head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	employer is aware that the employee will be taking	leave on the head and must have date of issue, address, telephone number and position of signatory. Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is Self-employed should present a registration document of the business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	and position of signatory.
business with the relevant South African authority. 1) CIPC, Health Professions Council of South Africa or other applicable authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	Self-employed should present a registration docum	ent of the authority. 2) Registration with the South African Revenue Service (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is (SARS). 3) If applicable, a SAICA accredited chartered accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is accountant's letter stating the current financial standing of the business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	• • business. Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is Proof of studies letter for students. Students must present a recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is	accountant's letter stating the current financial star	iding of the recent, official and signed letter from the school, college or university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is university, stating the date of issue, the name of the applicant and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is		= and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is and the type of studies or the name of the courses the student is enrolled in according to the university's/school's records.

Proof of accommodation reservation(s). Reservations must be presented for the entire duration of the trip within the Schengen Member State territory.
•
Proof of funds: last three months bank statements of a South African bank account. Statements should be drawn from a cheque account/ current account that reflect the salary the applicant is getting. NB: A private person may not be sponsored by another private person. The applicant's financial statements are required in full.
If the applicant is a minor, three months' current bank statements from a sponsoring parent/legal guardian are required together with a proof of employment letter for the sponsoring parent. If the legal guardian/parent is self-employed, please see above for the required documents.
Travel medical insurance must be valid for the duration of travel.
The minimum amount of the insurance coverage is 30,000 (thirty thousand) Euros and it must be valid in the whole territory of the Schengen Member States or worldwide.
A motivational letter explaining why the applicant has chosen Finland (and other countries within the Schengen Member State territory, if applicable) as the destination. The letter should explain what made the applicant become interested in the country/ies of destination(s), and what the applicant is hoping to see or do there.
If applicant is not South African by nationality: They must have a valid long-term South African residence permit/visa for non-South African nationals residing in South Africa. The original document must be shown at the Visa Application Centre and a certified copy must be provided with the application set.
Certification must be done at the South African Police Service or at a Commissioner of Oaths. If the permit is in an expired/old passport, the old passport must be shown at the Visa Application Centre and a certified copy provided.
The South African residence permit/visa will have to be valid at least for another three months after the intended return date from the territory of the Schengen Member States.
Please note that a 30 day visitor's visa will not entitle a non-South African to lodge a visa application in South Africa. Citizens of Lesotho and Botswana are also allowed to apply without a long-term SA permit/visa if they reside in the country of their nationality and not in South Africa.
If applicant is under 18 years of age (minor): A full birth certificate disclosing the names of (both) parents must always be presented. The applicant's guardian must bring the original birth certificate to the VAC and attach a certified copy to the application set. Certification must be done at the South African Police Service or at a Commissioner of Oaths. A certified copy of the parents' ID (legal guardians' ID) is required.
If the minor only has one legal guardian, a certified court document in English - or a certified translation into English - must be provided, proving sole custody of the legal guardian. If one or more legal guardian(s) are deceased, a certified copy of the death certificate is required.

sworn affidavit authorizing the minor each legal guardian who is not travell affidavits can be done either at the Soor at a Commissioner of Oaths. A cert guardians' IDs must be attached toge affidavits (if the legal guardians' deta birth certificate of the minor).	ling with the minor. Sworn outh African Police Service tified copy of the said lega ether with the sworn	: :
Applicant to choose as appropriate: I have understood that I have to substitution of the late of the	gning this form that the ma be to my disadvantage, if I nentioned documents to the	atter will be do not subi ne Finnish E	decided mit the de mbassy/0	without the requested ocuments by the above deemed necessary, to interview the ap	•	tional imol		ocumentation and, ii
• •	•	tional info		ocamentation and, ii
deemed necessary, to interview the ap	•	tional inioi		ocamentation and, ii
deemed necessary, to interview the ap	•	tional inioi		ocamentation and, ii
deemed necessary, to interview the apply VISA Fee Service Fee	•	tional inioi		ocamentation and, ii	